This catalog details the latest available information regarding academic offerings and information for the academic year. Southern Connecticut State University reserves the right to make any changes deemed necessary, without prior notice, to the rules governing admission, tuition, fees, programs, courses, granting of degrees, and regulations. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the information in this catalog at the time of publication.

This catalog is provided to students and applicants for their general information and guidance only. We encourage students to confirm information and requirements with their advisers. This catalog does not constitute a contract; either expressed or implied, and is subject to revision at the University’s discretion.

Students should be aware that additional requirements may be imposed for certification or licensure (even once a plan of study has been approved) if outside licensing or accrediting agencies impose such requirements. A plan of study may be subject to revision to reflect such additional requirements.
